Physical/Occupational Therapy Prescription

Instructions:	Name:		Date of Birth:
 Begin passive external rotation and supine passive flexion at two weeks post Please also incorporate active range of motion of the hand, wrist, forearm, at No scapular range of motion exercises. At six weeks post-operatively progress to full upright range of motion workin 	oclavicular dislocation	Code:	M25.519
 Range of motion: Sling immobilization for the first six weeks post-operatively. Ok to remove sl Begin passive external rotation and supine passive flexion at two weeks post Please also incorporate active range of motion of the hand, wrist, forearm, at No scapular range of motion exercises. At six weeks post-operatively progress to full upright range of motion workin 	oclavicular ligament reconstruction	Surgery Date	e:
 Sling immobilization for the first six weeks post-operatively. Ok to remove sl Begin passive external rotation and supine passive flexion at two weeks post Please also incorporate active range of motion of the hand, wrist, forearm, at No scapular range of motion exercises. At six weeks post-operatively progress to full upright range of motion workin
- Incorporate scapular range of motion exercises at this point.	e external rotation and supine passive fle ncorporate active range of motion of the range of motion exercises. post-operatively progress to full upright ed to active range of motion.	exion at two weeks pos hand, wrist, forearm, a range of motion worki	st-operatively. and elbow.

- No lifting for the first six weeks post-operatively and no lifting greater than ten pounds for the first three months post-operatively.
- Ok to begin rotator cuff, deltoid, and scapular stabilizer isometrics at six weeks post-operatively.
- Progress to bands and weights as tolerated after six weeks, limit to 10 lbs until three months postoperatively. Focus on the scapula.
- Incorporate plyometrics and sport-specific exercises at 4.5 months post-operatively.
- Expected return to sport of 4.5-6 months.

Please provide with a home exercise program.

·	. 0
Modalities
Heat before and ice after thera	ару.
Frequency: 3 times/week	Duration: 6 weeks
Signature:		Date:	